

Willett Law Office PLLC

To whom it may concern:

I represent, _____ . They are aware of their constitutional and statutory rights, including their right against self-incrimination. They do not wish to waive or forgo any of these rights, meaning that they do not consent to any search or seizure, or to answer any questions. They request to call my office immediately at 817-280-0923 or my personal cell 817-291-4987 upon your attempt to interrogate them or to search or seize them or their property. These rights and requests include any other governmental agents or agencies involved in this investigation.

Brian J Willett-Double Board Certified Attorney at Law

I invoke all of my constitutional and statutory rights. I invoke my right against self-incrimination and do not consent to any search or seizure. I request that I immediately be allowed to call my attorney if the police try to interrogate me or try to search or seize my property or me.

Client
